

<http://www.recordonline.com/article/20000827/news/308279964>

What they're saying about Pete Mazeiko

By Cliff Davis

Posted Aug 27, 2000 at 2:00 AM Updated Dec 14, 2010 at 8:34 PM

Elwood Bronner of Howells: "Pete is a tremendous motivator. He got me running in 1989, and that has helped me to be healthier than when I was 40. ... Not enough has been done over the years to recognize his achievements."

Frank Giannino, founder of the Orange Runners Club: "Pete Mazeiko to date has had the strongest long-term influence on the Orange Runners Club. No one has been more important to the history of this club."

Spero Chumas of Wallkill: "Orange County running owes a long round of applause to Peter Mazeiko. None are better. He and I shared exciting moments over the years announcing the finishes at the Orange Classic."

Rob Dickover of Middletown: "He was the one to call at the club when some county race director needed assistance. Course measurements, race calculations. More often than not he wound up doing it himself. That's one of the reasons the ORC named him honorary president for life."

Steve Holmbraker, current president of the Orange Runners Club: "He has a deep understanding of how to run a club. He's the essence of the quiet leader."

Ed Irlbacher of Middletown: "Whenever Pete's around, you're guaranteed to have fun because of his sense of humor and his friendliness. The same can be said of his wife, Terry."

Cliff Davis

What they're saying about Pete Mazeiko

MOST POPULAR

- 1 Man kills ailing wife, self at Westchester Medical Center
Aug 8 at 5:37 PM
- 2 Bradshaw officially completes Army football career
Aug 6 at 12:03 AM
- 3 Orange Confidential: Homeowners group countersues Hasidim for $25M
Aug 4 at 4:58 PM
- 4 Grossinger's famed towers set to come down
Aug 7 at 9:37 PM

Never Miss A Story

Subscribe to recordonline.com

By Cliff Davis

Posted Aug 27, 2000 at 2:00 AM
Updated Dec 14, 2010 at 8:34 PM

Elwood Bronner of Howells: "Pete is a tremendous motivator. He got me running in 1989, and that has helped me to be healthier than when I was 40. ... Not enough has been done over the years to recognize his achievements."

Frank Giannino, founder of the Orange Runners Club: "Pete Mazeiko to date has had the strongest long-term influence on the Orange Runners Club. No one has been more important to the history of this club."

Spero Chumas of Wallkill: "Orange County running owes a long round of applause to Peter Mazeiko. None are better. He and I shared exciting moments over the years announcing the finishes at the Orange Classic."

Rob Dickover of Middletown: "He was the one to call at the club when some county race director needed assistance. Course measurements, race calculations. More often than not he wound up doing it himself. That's one of the reasons the ORC named him honorary president for life."

Steve Holmbraker, current president of the Orange Runners Club: "He has a deep understanding of how to run a club. He's the essence of the quiet leader."

Ed Iribacher of Middletown: "Whenever Pete's around, you're guaranteed to have fun because of his sense of humor and his friendliness. The same can be said of his wife, Terry."

Cliff Davis

